Immaculate end terrace with villa sized proportions at the top of Pissouri. Within easy walking distance to high end dining establishments, atmospheric bars and Cypriot coffee shops in the popular village square the location is highly sought after for its proximity to village amenities. Add a private pool with a mature garden setting and a cool breeze; you have the recipe for a fantastic lifestyle home, ideal as a spacious holiday retreat or a permanent Cyprus residence in a great location.

Entry is via a handsome door which opens in a hallway leading on to large open plan living space.

Here is a real sense of space and light, the colour palette creating a cool atmosphere for those hotter than hot days. This villa provides comfort for all seasons with full air conditioning and cosy open fireplace for those cooler evenings.

Your mature garden and pristine pool are on full view via two large patio doors leading out to your Summer terrace.

To the right, via a light and bright spacious dining area you enter a separate, newly fitted, modern kitchen with all modern conveniences.

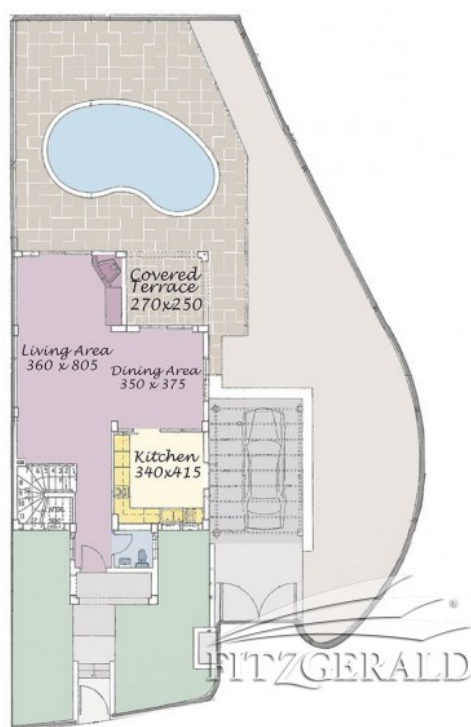

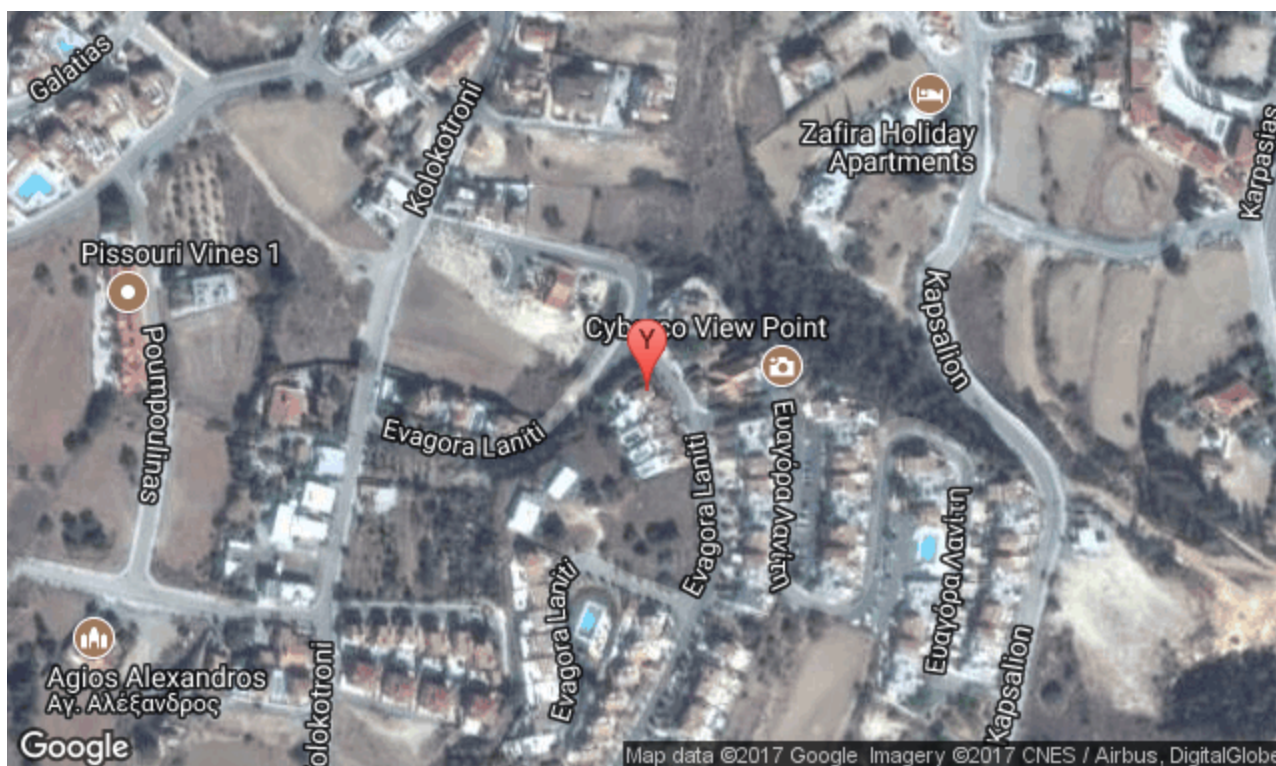

Leading through the large patio doors you find yourself admiring the garden from you shaded dining space where al fresco dining and relaxed living have been fully catered for on those sunny days.

The ground floor is completed with a Guest WC.

Upstairs off of a pretty, bright hallway there are three double bedrooms with quality wooden floors. The Master Bedroom benefits from an en-suite with quality tiles and fittings. There is also a large balcony from which to admire the village on a balmy evening. The large family bathroom has an immaculate white suite.

This beautifully maintained home with its exceptional building quality is a must see for the size, the lifestyle conveniences and the fantastic village location.
